

Agenda:
Closing event

ENTRANTS- Enhancing a Sense of Belonging in Higher Education

06 September 2023, 09:30 am- 17:00 pm

University of Applied Sciences Upper Austria, Linz Campus, Building D

This closing event will provide insights into all outputs the project has covered over the last three years. Participants will receive information about possibilities and strategies to create an inclusive atmosphere at university where all students feel accepted, and their inputs are valued and welcome.

Wednesday, 06 September 2023
09:30	Check-in and coffee
10:30	Welcome
	Theoretical framing of the ENTRANTS project: Othering, stereotype threat, unconscious bias – Input and interaction
12:00	Lunch
12:45 – 13:30	The importance of community building in HE: Design and implementation of a community building course for beginner students
13:35 – 14:20	Awareness-Raising: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Staff Training for administrative and teaching personnel - Low-level (web-based) support for beginner students to enhance their sense of belonging
14:20	Coffee break
14:45 – 15:30	Student wellbeing and its impact on belonging: Resilience self-assessment and support measures on resilience, self-compassion, procrastination, mindfulness
15:35 – 16:20	Outcomes of an international survey on students' sense of belonging
16:25	Closing
16:45 – 17:00	Check-out

The closing event addresses participants who are interested in:

- learning about strategies for supporting students' sense of belonging.
- learning about concepts like stereotype threat, othering and unconscious bias.
- promoting the co-creation of an inclusive study environment.
- how to involve and engage students.
- getting information on the impact of self-compassion, resilience, mindfulness and procrastination on wellbeing.